

HALLELUJAH

Artist: Forrest Frank

Hallelujah, I'm set free
And right where I am standing is where I'm
supposed to be

Hallelujah, I get to be me
And just the way you made me is how I'm
supposed to be

Hallelujah, I'm set free
And right where I am standing is where I'm
supposed to be

Hallelujah, I get to be me
And just the way you made me is how I'm
supposed to be

Okay, okay, okay, okay, okay (okay)
I've been tryna find a way to get away (get away)
Don't wanna listen to what other people say (others say)
'Cause they don't know what I've been going through today

Right in the madness You see my sadness
Take all my pain and exchange it for gladness
It be so tragic those who don't have it
Your love is everything I'll ever need

Hallelujah, I'm set free
And right where I am standing is where I'm
supposed to be

Hallelujah, I get to be me
And just the way you made me is how I'm
supposed to be

Hallelujah, I'm set free
And right where I am standing is where I'm
supposed to be

Hallelujah, I get to be me
And just the way you made me is how I'm
supposed to be

Alright, alright, alright, alright, alright (alright)
I've been putting up with critics solid fight (fight) But lately, I ain't been sleeping well through the night (through the night)
And sometimes I don't know if I wake up alive

And right in the madness you see my sadness
Take all my pain and exchange it for gladness
It be so tragic those who don't have it
Your love is everything I'll ever need

Hallelujah, I'm set free
And right where I am standing is where I'm

Hallelujah, I get to be me

Hallelujah, I'm set free

Hallelujah, I get to be me

Hallelujah, I'm set free

Hallelujah, I get to be me

Hallelujah
Hallelujah
Oh, yeah
Hallelujah
